

Our Year in Review

2011

Hello to family and friends,

We've had a very busy year as usual and this year we created this photographic year in review. We hope you enjoy it.

We visited Disneyland and LEGOLand this summer and found that it was a little too warm for us and the lines for the rides were too long. Grandma Shoko came along with us and we all had a great time.

DATA FILE

- Keiji is in 2nd grade and Stephen is in 4th grade. They both like school and do well academically.
- Stephen likes to play the Pokemon Trading Card Game competitively and may start playing Yu-Gi-Oh next.
- Keiji loves gymnastics on a non-competitive basis.
- Both boys love LEGOs and especially Star Wars themed kits.
- Brian is working as a contract Web Developer and Designer and loving it

"I love to bike now that I don't need training wheels"

Keiji

30 inches

Remember when the boxes were more fun than the toys that came in them?

2011 pinewood derby car named "Red Streak"

Half Lotus pose

Stephen tied for third place with his cub scout pinewood derby car

100 drinking straws held together with hot glue

Teacher approval

Circle of grass

Monument Reflecting pool

Last March, when Keiji was still in the First Grade, his class made a 100th day project requiring each child create a project with 100 objects. He created the Washington Monument using 100 drinking straws and lots of hot glue. His teacher was very impressed. As was I.

Stephen is standing in front of the Episode IV diorama in LEGO land